Taskforce on Federal Consumer Financial Law & Intergovernmental Affairs

On Monday, August 24, 2020, the Chair of the Taskforce on Federal Consumer Financial Law (Taskforce) met with representatives from the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) as part of the Taskforce's ongoing effort to solicit input from Federal partners to inform the Taskforce's work. Bureau attendees were Taskforce Chair, Todd Zywicki; Taskforce Staff Director, Nat Weber; Assistant Director Office of Intergovernmental Affairs, Cheryl Parker Rose; Taskforce Member, Bill MacLeod; Taskforce Senior Counsel, Ashlie Tarpley; and Taskforce Paralegal, Jeff Magliato. NCUA attendees were Matt Biliouris; Director of the Office of Consumer Financial Protection and Joe Goldberg; Director of the Division of Consumer Compliance Policy and Outreach. The conversation primarily focused on the legal framework of consumer protection, inclusion, and competition. The discussion was productive and led to strong recommendations for research, supervision and enforcement practices, consumer education, and inclusion that the Taskforce will take back to consider for including in the final report. The team can share a more detailed notes on the discussion upon request.
