

Taskforce Individual Meetings Plan

Purpose & Goals

- The Taskforce on Federal Consumer Financial Protection Law is committed to obtaining feedback from the general public and a diversity of engaged stakeholders to inform the recommendations it seeks to provide the Director by January 31, 2021.
- Given the impacts of COVID-19, a number of planned public engagements have been postponed or indefinitely delayed. To mitigate a potential gap in feedback, the Taskforce proposes a round of 10-15 meetings with key stakeholders in the consumer financial protection ecosystem.
- The meetings will be evenly distributed amongst consumer advocates, academia, and other thought leaders to ensure a diversity of perspectives are obtained.
- A record of the individuals and dates will be included in an appendix of the report.

Timing & Sequencing

- The Taskforce expects to receive feedback on its Request for Information by June 1, 2020, and the team anticipates taking two weeks to review and analyze comments.
- By June 19 the Taskforce anticipates completing volume one of its report. Volume one provided the research and findings that will underpin the reports shared in volume two.
- Given that the team will not be entirely focused on developing recommendations mid-June, the team envisions engaging with the Bureau's advisory boards and councils first in early July.
- After the formulating initial opinions and identifying topics that will have recommendations, the team will begin to engage with the stakeholders listed below to share thoughts, obtain opinions, and better formulate well rounded recommendations.
