Hi all:

Please find an agenda for next week's meeting attached. Invites will be sent later this morning. A few things to prepare:

1. Please share updated drafts of chapters for peer review. We won't walkthrough the entire chapters again, but we would like to take time for authors to have new or edited material discussed. Authors, please share any materials you would like comments on by Friday. I will send to the full group and store materials in the meeting folder.
2. On Wednesday we will return our focus to discussing recommendation. The bulleted list of recs can still be found here. Please feel free to pop into the document and add any recommendations you would like discussed.
3. On Thursday and Friday we would like to begin developing recommendations with a touch more granularity. To do this, we will want to be sure we can:
  - a. Cite analysis for where this recommendation is discussed in Volume I of the report
  - b. Briefly explain the logic as to why a recommendations should be adopted (e.g. what problem will be solved or efficiency gained)
  - c. Briefly explain how the recommendations can be implemented (act of Congress; modification of regulation, guidance, or SOP by CFPB; updated MOU between state or federal regulators; new research initiative; etc)
  - d. Provide an assessment of the benefits (subjective or objective) that will result from adopting the recommendation

Also, here is a notice about the Public Hearing: <https://www.consumerfinance.gov/about-us/events/taskforce-public-hearing/>. Feel free to share this with anyone you believe may be interested—I posted this to my LinkedIn account.

Best,
Nat
