General Comment

It is imperative that this agency stand up and protect consumers. Do your job and stop protecting profits over people. We are in the midst of the worst recession in history, where people are in need of safety nets and access to loans. By protecting and prioritizing corporations, banks, lenders and profits, this bureau fails its very essential mandate. Lives will suffer as a result.

This proposed task force is partisan, extreme and counter to the Bureau's mandate. Independent members with non-partisan beliefs should be appointed, not right-wing industry sycophants. The task force should represent Americans, consumers, not industry and greed.

Stand up for Americans, not greed!
